

SPEAKING - TEST 1

PART 1:

- Did you go to school in your present country?
- Did you learn a language at school? What and why?
- What subjects interest you now? And why?

- What do you plan to do in the future?
- What would be the future challengers that your country faces in the future?
- Would you mind the change the existing country?

- How do you spend your free time?
- Do you like relax with others or by yourself?
- What is your idea of advantages games?

PART 2:

Describe a festival or cultural event that you celebrate in your country.

You should say:

- What the event is
- How often the event takes place
- Who participates in the event

.....and explain why this festival or events important to you.

PART 3:

- How have cultural celebrations and festivals changed in your country?
- There is often a generation gap between children and their parents or grandparents. Can traditions help to bridge this gap or do they make the gap wide?
- Are there any traditions in your own culture that you don't agree with or that you particularly like?
- Is it necessary for immigrants to adopt customs and festivals that are celebrated in their new country?
- What role does religion play in your own country?

SPEAKING-TEST 2

PART 1:

- Tell about a sport that is interesting to you. What is it? Do you like to play this sport yourself? Do you follow professional teams?
- Why do you like this sport?
- Do you enjoy playing sports or doing other outdoor activities? Why or why not?
- In your city or town, what kinds of places are available for sports and other outdoor activities?
- What kind of things do you enjoy doing on weekends?
- Do you generally prefer to spend a day off from work or school at home, or do you like to go out to other places why?
- Who do you like to spend time with on your days off?

PART 2:

Describe a relative who you are like.

You should say:

- Who the relative is and how close you are to them
- What makes you and your relative like
- Why you think you and your relative have these shared qualities.

PART 3:

- Do you enjoy spending time with relatives? Why or why not?
- What type of traditions do you have and your relatives have?
- Do you think family members are more important than friends?
- Do you think that having good relationship with relatives is important to most people?
- How do family members help each other?
- Do you agree or disagree; families are not as important as they used to be.
- How are families now different from families in the past?
- How do you think families will change in the future?

SPEAKING-TEST 3

PART 1:

Home Town

- Is your hometown a good place to live? (Why? /why not?)
- What sort of jobs do people do in your home town?
- In which part of your home town people live?
- Where did you play in your home town when you were a child?

Films

- How often do you go to cinema?
- Do you prefer to watch a film at the cinema or at home? (Why?)
- Which film from your childhood do you remember most? (Why?)
- What's your favourite film now? (why?)

PART 2:

Describe an interesting place that you have visited as a tourist.

You should say:

- Where this place is
- Why you went there
- What you did there

.....and explain why you thought this place as so interesting.

PART 3:

- What areas of a town or city do tourists often like to visit?
- What can local people do to help tourists enjoy their visit?
- How important it for local governments to look after popular tourist attractions?
- How should tourists behave when they are in a different country?
- Should people pay to visit attractions such as museums and galleries? (Why? /why not?)
- What can tourists learn from visiting new places?

SPEAKING -TEST 4

PART 1:

- Describe the place you live in now.
- Do you think it's better to live in a house or in an apartment?
- Describe your neighbourhood.
- How do people choose their place to live?
- Describe your family. Are you married? Do you have children? Brothers and sisters?
- What are some things you enjoy doing with other members of your family?
- Who in your family are you particularly close to? Why?
- Do you spend more time with your family or with friends? Why?

PART 2:

Describe a gift you have received that was important to you.

You should say:

- Who gave it to you and for what occasion?
- What it looks like and how you use it
- Why it is important to you.

PART 3:

- Do you think people generally enjoy giving and receiving gifts? Why or why not?
- In your country, when do people usually give gifts?
- What kind of gifts do they give?
- Do you agree or disagree: The price of a gift shows how much the giver cares about the recipient.
- What is the different between modern and traditional gifts?
- What are the differences local gifts to international?
- What do females consider when they buy a gift? And why?
- Which are the advantages of giving gift one country to another?

SPEAKING-TEST 5

PART 1:

Your country

- Do most people live in houses or apartments in your country?
- What do people usually do in their free time in your country?
- What do you enjoy most about living in your country?
- Would you say that your country is a good place to visit? Why?

Food

- What is your favourite meal?
- Do you prefer to eat out or eat at home? Why?
- Are there any traditional meals that you would recommend? Why?
- How have people's eating habits changed in your country within last few decades?

PART 2:

Describe a television programme that you watch.

You should say:

- Which kind of television programme it is
- What usually happens in the programme
- Why you enjoy watching the television programme

.....and explain why you should recommend the television programme to other people

PART 3:

- How do you feel about the amount of advertising on television?
- In what ways has television advertising changed in the last ten years?
- To what extent are people influenced by the advertising they see on television?
- Why do people still enjoy going to cinema to watch a film?
- What sort of influence can films have on people?
- Should film-makers be responsible for the impact their films can have on people?
- How do you compare your country cinema to India?

SPEAKING-TEST 6

PART 1:

- What subject did you find most interesting when you were at school?
- Apart from classes, what else did you enjoy at school?
- Do you think that you will stay friends with people from school?
- What study or training would you like to do in the future?
- What type of weather you enjoy in your country?
- Do you have experience of seasons (climate) here?
- Do you like rainy season or dry?
- Does your climate decide the livelihood the country?

PART 2:

Describe a holiday you would like to go on.

You should say:

- What place you would like to go
- How you would like to get there
- What you would like to do while you were there

.....and explain why you would like to go on this holiday.

PART 3:

- What are the benefits of going away on holiday?
- Which places in your country do you think visitors would enjoy visiting most?
- What developments affecting international travel might there be in the future?
- What kind of benefits might a significant increase in tourist numbers bring to agree with this statement? (why)
- Some countries achieved their development goals on tourism. How those countries manage their culture and tourism?

SPEAKING-TEST 7

PART 1:

- Did you have the experience in private education?
- Why do children go to tuition?
- Some people think private education is less in discipline. How do you feel this situation?
- If you have chance to enter to both private and Government University at once, which do you select.
- What journeys do you make everyday?
- What do you do during journeys?
- Do you sometimes have problems with transport?
- What is your favourite form of transport?

PART 2:

Describe a conversation you had which was important to you.

You should say:

- When the conversation took place
- Who you had the conversation was about
- What the conversation was about

.....and explain why the conversation was important to you

PART 3:

- What differences are there when using channels of communication (face-to-face, telephone, writing)
- To what extent do you think films and TV influence how people communicate with each other?
- Do you think that are differences in the way men and women communicate?
- Do you agree that education has a strong and positive effect on people's ability to communicate effectively?
- What impact do you think the growth of technology might have on communication in the future?

SPEAKING-TEST 8

PART 1:

- Do you like listening to music? Why?
- What kind of music do you enjoy?
- When do you usually enjoy music?
- Have you ever learned to play a music instrument?
- What are your favourite musical instruments and why do you especially like them?
- What is your idea of the unemployment in your a country?
- What are the disadvantages of increasing the unemployment ratio of a country?
- What suggestions you can recommend to minimize it?

PART 2:

Describe an important year in your life.

You should say:

- How old you were
- What important things you remember from that year
- Where these things happened

.....and say why you think that year was so important.

PART 3:

- How important is it to know your family history?
- What are the best ways to keep family history alive?
- Do you think it is important to study and understand the history of one's country?
- Why do you think studying history has become less popular these days?
- How could we encourage young people to become interested in history?
- Do you think that your country has a celebrative history? Why?
- What differences you enjoy Asian history and European?

SPEAKING-TEST 9

PART 1:

- Do you work or are you a student?
- What are you studying at the moment?
- Why did you choose to study these subjects? (This programme? / this degree?)
- What do you hope to do when you have finished your current studies?
- How do you spend your spare time?
- When you go out? Do you usually go alone or with others? Why?
- Is there a particular time in the week when you prefer to go out?
- Do you like have meal prepare at home or from restaurant?
- Why youngsters prefer to have chines than to our traditional foodstuffs?

PATR 2:

Describe someone you admire very much.

You should say:

- Who this person is
- What this person does
- How long you have known about this person

.....and explain why you admire this person so much.

PART 3:

- What makes a person famous?
- What kinds of people were famous in your grandparent's time?
- In your opinion, is being well-known easy to live with?
- What kind of people will be famous in the future?
- What responsibilities to society do famous people have?
- Do you think the children of famous people have an easy time?
- Would you like to be famous? Would being famous change you?
- What are the measurements Asians using to measure a quality of a person?

SPEAKING-TEST 10

PART 1:

- Do you use the telephone or mobile very often?
- Do you send text messages?
- Are phone calls expensive in your country?
- Do you use internet? What for?
- Which is the best way for you to keep in touch with friends and family?
- Do you go to the market daily? Why?
- What are the different markets can be seen in your area?
- What are the benefits of it?
- Why it is not famous in your country?

PART 2:

Describe about a book that you like when you were a child.

You should say:

- What the book is and who wrote it
- What it is about
- When you read it

.....and say why you remember that particular book.

PART 3:

- To what extent are people's reading habits changing?
- Are libraries going to become less or more popular in the future?
- Do you think people read more often to learn things or to escape?
- In what ways are books preferable to movies?
- Have you changed your view of life in a deep way?
- Some believe that internet has replace book reading now?
- Even though E-books and E-papers are abandon in the web, people use to read physical books and newspapers and why?
- What are the disadvantages and advantages reading newspapers in cyber space?